About the property

Masseria Alfredo is situated a few minutes' from the sea and 8km from the historic town of Ostuni. The property is a traditional stone built Masseria dating back to the 1800's which requires to be renovated.

The land for sale with the Masseria measures 14 hectares. There is a private road which leads to the sea and in the grounds is a large frantoio where the olives used to be pressed.

The dwelling area of the property measures 1300 sqm and there are also various outbuildings and animal enclosures. The dwelling area extends over 2 floors and there is also a roof terrace from where there are fantastic views of the coastline and also of Ostuni.

There are many traditional features in this historic building such as the original flooring, stellar ceilings and stone fireplaces.

Detailed floorplans are available to interested parties.
